The map is based on aerial photographs from 1930, revised in 1967. It was created by the Geological Survey and follows USC&GS Charts. The depth curves and soundings are in feet, with the datum being Mean Lower Low Water. The average range of tide is approximately 2 feet. The map conforms to the National Map Accuracy Standards. For more information, a folder describing topographic maps and symbols is available upon request.